Detailed Action

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The subject matter not described in the specification is the distributing unit that calculates a value as claimed and recited in claims 1 and 9.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the distributing unit must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

See the content in the 112 rejection above alleged not supported in the specification and recited in claims 1 and 9.

Examiner's Remarks

Applicant's remarks have been considered but are not persuasive to allow the claims nor overcome the 112 first paragraph rejection.

The examiner correctly stated that the specification did not describe a distributing unit that calculates a value as recited in claims 1 and 9.

Applicant refutes the examiner's claim by submitting that the distributing unit is illustrated in figure 1. However, applicant does not specifically state which of the elements in figure 1 constitutes the distributing unit. Applicant refers to the adding unit 207 which only has two input means. However, applicant argues that the unit 207 has three input means. The analysis of three inputs is erroneous. There are only two input means where the sources are provided from elements 203 and 117.

Applicant further confuses the distributing unit by stating that the output of the distributing unit comprises the output of the adding unit 207. Again, it is not clear what the unit is. Applicant's support is further incredible in that the threshold unit 103 is alleged to be an input to the distributing unit. Figure 1, fails to support this contention. The threshold circuit appears to have output connections to both the inversion circuit 113 and the negative terminal of buffer/amp 115. Again, it cannot be determined what applicant regards as the distributing unit, since output from 103 goes to three different circuits. Applicant still has not made the clear distinction of what constitutes the distributing circuit. Applicant states that the outputs of circuits 101, 103 and 109 feed into the distributing unit. In figure 1, there is not such circuit that possible supports applicants contention of a unit that receives all three of the outputs of 101, 103 and 109 together.

Hence the 112 first paragraph rejection of claims 1-11 is sustained.

Regarding the rejection of claims 1 and 5-9, the rejection is withdrawn in view of applicant's comments that the art and patent application are assigned to the same assignee:

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
